Submitted by Joel Gagnon

Here's a reminder about the West Danby Community Association's Harvest dish-to-pass supper at 5pm on November 3 in the West Danby Fire Hall. The event will include an opportunity to meet the candidates in this fall's local election.

All of the candidates for local office will be invited, and this may be the only opportunity to meet the candidates in a public forum. Everyone with an interest is welcome. Beverage and table service provided. ❁

NEIGHBORS HELP NEIGHBORS

Submitted by Ross Borden and Jessica Remais-Sager

In mid-September, while Erik Gaden was fighting for his life, a group of us planned a benefit event. A month later, Erik is out of danger and his burns are healing.

On Sunday, October 14, several hundred of his friends and neighbors gathered for an afternoon of music, dinner, and a raffle at the Danby Fire Station. Many of Erik's family travelled far and wide to join us. We celebrated Erik's strength and determination, and we raised over $6000 to help with the expenses associated with his recovery. Heartfelt thanks to everyone! The communities of Danby and West Danby are a wonderfully caring and generous neighborhood.

It is impossible to name everyone who gave so much to this effort, but the organizers would like to acknowledge the generous support of local businesses, organizations, and individuals who contributed their time and money, raffle prizes, banquet provisions, and music.

For the raffle: Agway, American Legion Post #221, Augie's Pizza, August Moon Spa, Barnes & Nobles, Big Al's Pizza, Deanna Bowles, Pat Caveney, Chili's, Cornell University Kiplinger Theatre, Marrell Cortright, Members of the Danby Volunteer Fire Company, Danby Pirates Club, Dick's Sporting Goods, Eastern Mountain Sports, Fedex

COMMUNITY COUNCIL SEEKS DIRECTORS

Submitted by Dan Klein

The Danby Community Council anticipates several openings on its Board of Directors as of January. The Danby Community Council provides guidance for youth programs in Danby, runs community events, collaborates with other agencies in Danby and the County, and provides youth scholarships.

No special skills are necessary, just a desire to help improve the quality of life in Danby. We meet once a month. Most members help with a special project such as the Halloween party, the Danby Fun Day fundraiser for the Fire Department, the local films series, or the concert series. Please consider joining the Community Council and lending your energy to this community organization.

If you want to learn more, contact Dan Klein, [danbydan@hotmail.com] or 607.272.7582, or stop by at one of our meetings and get a sense of what we do. Our next meeting is Thursday, November 15, 8pm, at the Danby Fire Station. ❁

DANBY YOUTH SUMMIT

The Danby Community Council is sponsoring a Danby Youth Worker Summit on Thursday, November 15, 6-8pm, at the Danby Fire Station on Route 96B.

The purpose of this event is for people working with youth in Danby to meet and brainstorm new ways they might work with each other, and to give feedback to the Community Council about their thoughts concerning the needs of youth and youth programming in Danby.

The public is invited. A free dinner will be served. It would be helpful to know in advance if you are planning to attend, so we know how much food to buy.

For more information, contact Dan Klein, [danbydan@hotmail.com] or 607.272.7582. ❁

BALD HILL ROAD PIES

Submitted by Jean Rowley

Residents of Bald Hill/Lieb/Jennings Pond Road held a very successful first annual Potluck Dinner and Pie Baking Contest at Jennings Pond on August 26. Nearly 50 people came out to eat a delicious meal and then sample the nine pies baked for the event. Madeline Jacobson won top honors with her spectacular apple pie.

Special thanks to the Danby Fire Department for donating the use of tables and chairs, the Danby Fun Day Committee for donating two tents, Mary Ann Kozak for contributing name tags, Amy Cusimano for the signs, Sue Beeners for helping with everything, and to lifeguards Scott Kozak, Mason Cusimano, and Ethan Bibbe, who set up and took down the chairs, tables, and tents.

We will do this again next year! Thank you to everyone who enjoyed Jennings Pond and thank you to our great lifeguards. See you next summer! ❁

DANBY TOWN HISTORY

Submitted by Joan Grant, Town Historian

Danby Brochure

This month marks the release of a new touring brochure, entitled Destination Danby. Under the guidance of Carol Kammen (County Historian) and Jane Marsh Dieckmann (Ithaca City Historian), each of the nine town historians, along with their deputies, gathered photos and information of interest regarding their towns.

Each brochure includes a brief town history plus a map with symbols for categories such as scenic views, recreational areas, cemeteries, and historical markers, along with photos and corresponding description. Annual events plus lodging and specialty shops are also listed.

Brochures will be available at the Danby Town Hall and the Danby Community Library, the Danby and West Danby Volunteer Fire Companies, Contented Country Gifts and the Danby Federated Church. You can also find Destination Danby in the Tourist Information Service Center at 904 East Shore Drive in Ithaca. While there, you might also want to look for the brochures from the towns of Caroline, Dryden, Enfield, Groton, Ithaca, Lansing, Newfield, and Ulysses.

This brochure was funded by the Strategic Tourism Board and the Town of Danby.

PS: I apologize to the West Danby Fire Company for the incorrect placement of their fire station on the map; the correct location was submitted. ❁

Refreshments will be provided. Register with Donna George, 607.272.0212 or [dgeorge@hospicare.org].

DEMPC UPDATE

Submitted by Sue Beeners, Zoning Officer

The Danby Emergency Management Preparedness Committee continues its work. Recent funding will help DEMPC meet recent State and Federal mandates while continuing emergency planning on a community grass-roots level.

One priority is planning for the “Bumpy Weather” ahead of us. Remember past ice and snow storms, power outages, and high winds? DEMPC needs your help to improve emergency response during such events.

Help our community to Be Ready.

- Please fill out the Disaster Response Survey. It’s on the web, [town.danby.ny.us], or you can pick one up—along with an Emergency Preparedness Info Kit—at the Town Hall. The Survey is confidential, for use only by emergency responders.
- Make sure you know your neighbors, and get together with them to make plans for helping each other.
- Make sure your household is ready for emergencies.
- Check out the extensive information on the TompkinsREADY web site, [www.tompkinsready.org].

Address Signs: Can We Find You?

State Law requires that occupied properties have address numbers—4 inches high, on a contrasting background—visible from the street. Emergency Responders need to find you, so upgrade your address numbers! Address signs may be purchased through the Danby Fire Company, 607.272.8114, or the West Danby Fire Company, 607.564.7303. Both Fire Companies can help with installation of these signs. ❁

HIGHWAY DEP’T UPDATE

Submitted by Tracy White

As you can see while driving through our wonderful town, the Highway Department has been very busy during the “fast months”. Paving has been completed on East Miller Road, Hill Road, and West Jersey Hill Road; once the shoulders are done, the projects will be finished. We are also planning for major work during 2008: Brown Road, Valley View, and Maple Avenue.

As winter is fast coming upon us, we are beginning our stockpiling of salt and sand. As always, please, remember not to park your cars alongside of roadways during the winter months, as this hampers our snow removal operations. Drive safely...and enjoy the fall. ❁

Kinko’s, Finger Lakes Beverage Center, Hearth & Home, Beatrice Hogben, Gay Huddle, Ithaca Flower Shop, La Tourelle, Frank Lavore, Monro Muffler & Brake, Pancho Villa Mexican Restaurant, Rogan’s Corners, Scissorhands Salon, Carol Sczepanski, Schooley’s Jewelers, Smart Monkey Cafe, Michelle Sturm, Rich Sturm, Melissa Todi, Tops Market, Transitions, Wegmans, members of the West Danby Fire Dept, Wal-Mart, and Diane Zimmer. The raffle raised $3071 and prizes went to Nick McAfee of Ithaca, Naomi Strichartz of Spencer, and John Howard of Syracuse.

For the banquet: Maria and Joe Salino and the Italian Carry-Out, Culligan Water Conditioning, Danby Food Pantry, Ithaca Bakery, Wegmans; the Bakers and Dessert-Makers of Danby and West Danby: Magie Barrett, Margie Bitzer, Dee Bowles, Jane Brewer, Judy Caveney, Trudy Cesin, Joanne Church, Marrell Cortright, Amy Cusimano, Skip and Janet Tiffany Fairchild, Debbie Goodman, Kathy Halton, Shirley Hauland, Eleven Hendrix, Linda Howe, Sherry Huddle, Denise McDermitt, Sarah McNaull, Judy Oltz, Barbara Robinson, Margie VanDeMark, Scott Wendt, and Mel Westmiller.

For the music: Ron Andrico, Joe Damiano, Peter Fraissinet, Ben Hogben, and Tod Sukontarak.

Apologies for all the omissions and misspellings here, and absolute thanks! ❁

DCC MOVIE NIGHT

Submitted by Eloise Greene

Slawomir Grünberg's 2005 documentary, Borderline: The People vs. Eunice Baker, will be screened in the Danby Town Hall at 7pm on Saturday, November 17. The screening is sponsored by the Danby Community Council. It's free and popcorn will be served.

Danby resident Grünberg is an Emmy Award-winning documentary producer, director, cameraman, and editor born in Lublin, Poland. A graduate of the Polish Film School in Lodz, he emigrated to the US in 1981; since then he has directed and produced over 40 television documentaries, winning numerous national and international awards. Grünberg founded Log In Productions, a professional film and video production company, in Danby in 1987.

Borderline, which aired on public television stations, tells the story of Eunice Baker, a borderline mentally retarded woman who was sentenced to 15 years to life in prison for murdering a child she baby-sat, despite evidence that the death was accidental. After nearly five years in prison, the New York State Appellate Court reduced the charge to criminally negligent homicide, and Baker was released in 2004 on time served.

By following this controversy as it unfolds in the Owego courtroom, Borderline draws attention to the problem of mentally handicapped individuals charged with crime, and provides insight into a tragic case in our neighboring community.

More about the movie at [www.logtv.com/films/borderline/] and [www.reentrymediaoutreach.org/borderline\_pn.htm]. ❀

DANBY TALENT SHOW!

The Danby Community Council would like to organize a talent night! Here's a chance to show your community what your hard work and talent can offer.

If you can present a 7-10 minute long act -- music or something else—we would like to know about it. Please fill out this application and send it to June Pollock at 43 Hornbrook Road or call 607.273.4744.

If there are enough serious responses we will arrange an evening to showcase Danby talent! ❀

SUPERVISOR'S TOWN NEWS

Submitted by Ric Dietrich, Town Supervisor

This has been a very busy month for the Town of Danby. Requirements for Town Government have been made much more complicated and I recently completed 40 hours of training in order to keep Danby compliant with these new regulations. As a result, the Town is now eligible for FEMA money in case of a natural disaster.

The Council of Governments has been formed, with membership including County Legislators, Town Supervisors, and Staff. We have been working hard during the past two years to develop this council. We have created the Recreation Partnership, a program for Tompkins County children that offers sports, theater, and community development skills; the Town of Danby recently signed this agreement.

Our current project is self-insurance for municipalities, with the potential to save millions of dollars. We realized that the biggest cost to towns is health insurance, so we said, "Let's become self insured."

We have received a grant to help us do this and the plan is now on the table in Albany and will be presented by Assemblywoman Barbara Lifton.

The SPCA is running a deficit and has doubled the fees to all towns in order for us to use their services. The town is meeting in emergency session to formulate a response to this new development.

There is a lot happening -- outside our borders -- that affects our Town of Danby we must make time to effectively meet with other elected officials. Cooperation between elected bodies will be essential for the future of our town. There is still much to do. ❀

DANBY COMMUNITY LIBRARY

Submitted by Patti Meyers

*Two days later, I didn't have to ask if I had reached my destination. You couldn't miss it. The building stood just back from the wagon road. And there was a sign, a grey slab of shingle nailed to a stob pitched at a leisurely angle to plumb, big writing in red faded paint saying STORE. Which suggested the existence of customers. There was apparently a community nearby, but you'd never know by looking. This was just the merest gesture of an outpost, a place marker set down in the wilderness.—from Thirteen Moons by Charles Frazier, author of Cold Mountain.*

A big thank you to the producer of 101 Ways to Retire...or Not for donating a copy of the DVD to the Danby Community Library after its showing by the Danby Community Council.

A reminder that you will no longer be able to return TCPL items to the Danby Community Library (for delivery downtown) after December 27, 2007. After that we will only circulate Danby materials.

The Fall Reading List is here!

DANBY TOWN TALK

Submitted by Gay Huddle, Ithaca Journal Correspondent

I've come up with a saying that gives me comfort; it describes how it feels to do something nice for someone and have them be so appreciative that you feel terrific for the effort. It's "45 Minutes and an 80-Cent Donut."

It stems from a visit I made to someone I love very much, when she really needed it but didn't expect it. During the ride home, I realized that not only did she feel good for the visit, but I felt good for having made it. Now what a simple solution to finding happiness, don't you think?

Congratulations goes out to the committee involved in the Danby Church Fall Fair. The set-up this year was great, making for an easier flow of traffic. Baked goods, crafts, flowers, vegetables, white elephant, snacks, silent auction, and the chicken barbecue...hard work bringing all that together!

Please continue to send me stories for the Danby Town Talk column, which runs in the Ithaca Journal every other Thursday. I have people stop me everywhere I go, telling me how much they enjoy reading about life in our little community. Items of interest can include anything from family vacations to graduations to town history to special trips to weddings, babies, and more. Pictures are also encouraged. You can contact me at [gayhuddle@hotmail.com] or 607.273.6530. ❄

For Tom's programs, to have a brochure mailed or faxed to you, please contact Tom Archibald, 607.272.2292 x222, [tga4@cornell.edu], or visit [http://www.cce.cornell.edu/tompkins/rys/local.htm].

Primitive Pursuits—Grades 4-8

Danby Federated Church

Mondays, September 17–December 17 (3:30-6:30pm)
(bus drop-off is available from Boynton)

Youth learn ancestral outdoor survival skills including shelter building, knife safety, fire building, cord making, orienteering, outdoor cooking and much more. This popular program is an extremely valuable occasion for youth to get away from the fast-paced lives they often lead and relearn how to look at the world (natural and man-made) through a different lens. The future benefits are multiple and diverse, for both the environment and the youth. This time around, we will focus on working towards an overnight in the woods!

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Submitted by Bonnie Rathbun

Every year, the Danby Federated Church collects shoe boxes of toys and items to send to Operation Christmas Child, sponsored by Samaritan's Purse. This year we would like to extend the opportunity to contribute boxes to all Danby residents.

This year, the church will collect the boxes until November 12, and then get them to the local collection point, who will ship them to Samaritan's Purse.

Each shoe box should be identified for a girl or boy, and the appropriate age range. We have flyers at the church

Halloween Party

The Danby Community Council's Halloween Party at the Danby Fire Station on Saturday, October 27, 3-6pm, offers games, crafts, button making, pizza, cider and goodies, a costume pageant and loads of fun! ❀

Let's Do Lunch!—Grades 6-7

Boynton Middle School

Tuesdays during lunch,
(dates TBA)

Join us during lunch period for a more relaxed, enjoyable experience with your friends. We'll go to our own room and do whatever we want as we eat. We could play games, do arts and crafts, or just chat about whatever is on your mind. You will find that lunch at school can be more healthy and happy than you thought.

Video Visions—Grades 4-8

Boynton Middle School

Thursdays, September 27-December 13 (3:30-5:30pm)

We all see the world through different lenses. Wouldn't it be fun to share how you see the world by making your own video? Join us for this exciting new program as we use a hand-held digital video camera to explore, capture, and share the world around us. We will get to use cool video editing programs on the computer to help turn your raw footage into the video you want it to be. We'll also visit different spots, using video recording as a new way to view "community," and as a way to share your video vision with the rest of the world.

Tom adds, "The more the merrier, so please don't hesitate to try these wonderful free programs. Home-schoolers are more than welcome. Wherever you are, in or near Danby, just come! See you soon!" ❀ to label boxes. Wrap the box bottom and top separately in festive paper. Place small toys, items for health or grooming, crafts, etc., in the wrapped box, but please do not include toy guns or weapons, or containers of liquids that could break or spill. Prewrapped candy is often a special treat for the children.

It is requested that you include $7.00 per box to cover shipping costs. Keep the box closed with a large rubber band. The church has pamphlets that give ideas for things to include in the boxes, and the pamphlet can also serve as a label for the box. Call the church for information. ❀

And Another Halloween Party

The Danby Federated Church has a Trunk or Treat party on Halloween, Wednesday, October 31, 5-7pm. Set up your treats out of your car (trunk or otherwise) or on a table in the Church's Fellowship Hall. ❀
