MOVIES IN THE TOWN HALL

Submitted by Eloise Greene

Ithaca filmmaker Gossa Tsegaye will screen his latest documentary The Jungle's Edge at 7pm on Saturday, March 15, in Danby Town Hall. The half-hour film chronicles daily life in the Jungle, a wooded area near Cayuga Lake Inlet that for decades has served as a home for the homeless.

Gossa filmed The Jungle's Edge over a two-year period with local resident David Fogel. Sponsored by Danby Community Council, the screening and fresh-popped popcorn are free.

Gossa has produced several documentaries on marginalized groups in Tompkins County, including Dream Street, about residents of the Buffalo Hill Road area in Caroline, and The Dividing Line, about Ithaca's West End. He has produced more than 75 films, many telecasts for public access and PBS, and has won numerous awards.

Gossa was born and raised in Ethiopia and came to the US at age 17. His first home in Ithaca was on East Miller Road in Danby. He was graduated by Ithaca High School in 1972, Ithaca College in 1976, and Cornell University in 1984. He teaches at Ithaca College, where he is president of the Faculty Council, and lives on Cleveland Avenue with his wife Elizabeth and daughter Nile. ❁

The Building Committee and Board of Commissioners are pleased that the resolution passed, with 83 votes in favor and 38 opposed. This timely approval should enable us to proceed to completion of this important project in 2008. ❁

Dewitt Traver is the grandfather of Kenneth Traver of South Danby Road, who so generously shared his grandfather's diaries. In 1977 Ken's wife, Lois, chose the most interesting excerpts and presented them to her husband as a gift. Ken Traver is thought of by many as the unofficial Mayor of South Danby, the senior gentleman of our South Danby's history. ❁

TC LEGISLATURE REPORT

Submitted by Frank Proto

As you might suspect the County is anticipating a challenging budget season, particularly with Governor Spitzer's proposed draft and its unknown actual impact on County departments and services. Departments have been asked to estimate the impact, assuming that his budget is passed. Even without feedback from the agencies, we're guessing at a loss of over a half-million dollars.

Don't miss the deadlines for filing your property exemptions. Call the Assessment Department (607.274.5517) if you're not sure. Also, agricultural exemptions are due by April 1! Remember to set up a time to talk to the assessor if you want to discuss your new assessment. Grievance days provide another opportunity to review paperwork, though those dates have not yet been confirmed. Formal reviews will be in May.

I chair the Legislature's Health and Human Services Committee, and serve on the Planning, Development, and Environmental Quality Committee. The issues currently addressed by these committees include the Health Department's fee structure, water well siting program, a new water and sewer survey through Tompkins County Area Development, Lake Source Monitoring Program, flood hazard mitigation projects, affordable housing, and adjustments to the ag district.

At the request of many constituents, and with Senator Schumer's help, the impact of large waste hauling vehicles passing through our towns is being addressed.

Each Town has secured an additional $1,000 through the County, to apply towards Community Library services. This should help to offset some unanticipated expenses.

Ridership on the TCAT bus routes has increased, logging over 3 million riders Countywide for the second year in a row!

As always don't forget to nominate any youth in our community for the Distinguished Youth Award. Call the Legislature Office, 607.274.5434 for details.

Should there be a matter you wish to discuss, please call me at my office, 607.277.4875, at the County Legislature 607.274.5434, or drop me a note at Cannonbrook Farms, Slaterville Springs, NY 14881. ❀

MUSICALE AT HOSPICARE

Submitted by Saoirse Mcclory

Hospicare and Palliative Care Services will be hosting the first of its Sunday musicales at 2pm on Sunday, March 9 in the Nina K. Miller Hospicare Center, 172 East King Road. This performance will feature Gail Blake (guitar), Jennifer Dotson (fiddle) and Pamela Goddard (voice and mountain dulcimer).

Blake and Dotson are also known as Kitchen Chair when they're playing as a duo. "We're going to do a short, informal concert of gentle traditional folk songs and dance tunes," says Pamela Goddard, "The tunes will be easy-going jigs, reels, and waltzes. The songs will be about relationships, adventure, and life."

The seasonal Sunday musicales are part of Hospicare and Palliative Care Services' grant-funded program of music in palliative care, coordinated by local musician, Jayne Demakos, a professional harpist and pianist.

The musicales are free and open to all. Refreshments will be provided. For more information call Hospicare and Palliative Care Services, 607.272.0212 or [www.hospicare.org]. ❀

SUPERVISOR'S UPDATE

Submitted by Ric Dietrich, Town Supervisor

This month, the Town Board listened to a presentation by the Danby Community Park Association which is working to establish a park across the street from the Town Hall. Currently, they are planning to build ball fields for the Babe Ruth League/Cal Ripkin Division. Plans for the future include a Community Center.

The Town of Danby is working with other municipalities in Tompkins County regarding our future S.P.C.A. contract and we are meeting on our own to talk to them about the quality of service they provide for our town.

In other business, we are in the process of installing backup generators for the West Danby water district.

Highway Secretary Laura Shawley reported that the Highway Superintendent has hired two new employees and that the paperwork has been filed for the grant that paid for the East Miller Road repairs.

Susan Beeners is working on a Request for Proposal for smoke detectors for the Town Hall. These detectors will be connected to the County Dispatch Center. When an appropriate bid is chosen, the matter will be discussed at a public hearing.

We have lost a number of "old timers" lately and, without mentioning them by name, many have been saddened by their passing. They gave a lot of their time to the community, their children grew up and went to school together, and some of them sat on our boards and served us in many ways. It has made me more aware of the passage of time and how we rely on one another. It's how one might feel when old oak trees fall in the forest. ❁

DANBY TOWN TALK

Submitted by Gay Huddle, Danby Town Talk Columnist

Welcome to Danby

Poppy Singer came to this area from New York City when her father was offered a job at Cornell.

Both Poppy's dad and her mom were artists and, early on, Poppy took a particular interest in clothing and fabric design. For many years she sewed her own clothes, and went on to earn a Master of Arts in Textiles and Apparel from Cornell University.

These days, in addition to sewing, alterations, and custom clothing, Poppy is working to establish a business that will sell organic cotton bedding that features her own designs. If all goes according to plan, her first samples will be ready in March.

For a long time, Poppy wanted to live in Danby and, a year and a half ago, she and her husband moved to their home on Nelson Road, where she enjoys the woods and the pond. Poppy, who offers her skills in sewing, stenciling, and customizing ceramic files, can be reached at 607.273.4041. ❀

DANBY SENIOR CITIZENS

Submitted by Marjorie VanDeMark

The next meeting of the Danby Senior Citizens will be at Noon on Thursday, March 6 at the Danby Federated Church. All Danby residents 55 and older are invited to attend. Dues are only $2.00 per year and it's a great way to fellowship with Danby friends and neighbors.

So far, we're planned two trips for this year: on June 17 we will be going to the Merry Go Round Theater production of All Shook Up, and on September 24 we'll travel on the Delaware Ulster Railroad, including dinner on the train. For details and to sign up, contact Ted or Connie Merritt at 607.272.3009. ❀

SENIOR OF THE YEAR

The Tompkins County Office for the Aging is now accepting nominations for its 2008 Senior Citizen of the Year award. The award is granted to a senior citizen who has tirelessly advocated on behalf of seniors within their communities. He or she has assisted in providing needed support services and activities which have enriched the lives of senior citizens and made a particularly exceptional contribution to his or her community.

MARATHON CHALLENGE

Submitted by Joe Greenberg

I am writing to share with you a challenge and philanthropic cause I have made the commitment to take on this year. I am training for my first full marathon that is taking place this June in San Diego, CA. I intend to run as part of a team from Central NY which raises awareness and funds for research supported by The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

I have known too many families who have lost a parent or a child to cancer, including my own mother at age 47. In the past year, two students at my school (Lehman Alternative Community School) had mothers who were fighting cancer. Sadly, one lost her battle late last fall, while the other has made amazing progress and appears to be healing from the leukemia discovered just last summer. I am dedicating my training and marathon race to these two moms and their children.

Please check out my training/fundraising web page [<http://www.active.com/donate/tntcny/ntcnyJGreenb>] and feel free to share its address with anyone who might also support my running.

Obviously, it would be great if you could make a tax-deductable donation to The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society at the web page above or contact me, 607.272.2244 or [jaik64@gmail.com], for its mailing address. My hope is to reach my $5,000 fundraising goal by the middle of March, even though the race is not until June 1st in San Diego. I have a way to go before I am ready for the marathon but, like most endeavors, it's a one day at a time, one foot in front of the other proposition.

In advance, thanks for your support of me, and my efforts to make a difference. I'm sure I will see many you during my runs along the roads of Danby in the weeks and months leading up to the marathon. ❀

Nominations, in the form of a letter, should include activities, achievements and the reasons that the individual should receive the award. Please include contact information for both the nominator and the nominee in the letter. Send your nominations to the Tompkins County Office for the Aging, 320 North Tioga Street, Ithaca, NY 14850, [kschickel@tompkins-co.org], or fax to 607.274.5495) by Friday, April 4. For more info, contact the TC Office for the Aging at 607.274.5482.

Housed at the Ithaca Youth Bureau, it is staffed by professionals who advise young people and employers.

Employers: YES will ask you details to get an idea of your needs. YES can refer teens who are interested in working, have been pre-screened by the staff, and have developed an employment record with YES. Babysitters must meet YES requirements and receive YES approval.

Teens: Fill out the YES application from the Ithaca Youth Bureau or from [www.ithacayouthbureau.org]. Have a parent sign the permission form, and include names and addresses of three references. Call YES at 607.273.8364 and ask for an interview. ✿
