A NOTE OF THANKS

TO THE GOOD SAMARITAN who fixed our mailbox on Comfort Road...

Thank you so much for helping us fix our broken mailbox after an unfortunate incident with the snow plow. You left no information for us to thank you personally but we had a long list of potential candidates. Since we could not narrow down the list it only seems fitting to thank the entire town.

We so appreciate Danby for being a community where kind acts and friendliness are common.

Thank you, the grateful neighbors on Comfort Road. ❁

WELCOME, NEW READERS

Submitted by Ted Crane

KEEPING THE DANBY NEWS mailing list up-to-date, to include every residence in Danby, is an ongoing process. This month, a few of you are seeing your first issue!

Please, ask your friends and neighbors whether they are receiving a monthly copy of the Danby News in the mail. If not, suggest they contact [danbynews@tedcrane.com] to request that their address be added to the list.

Yes, the current issue (and an archive of older issues) are available online at [danbyny.org/DanbyNews].

No, there is currently no mechanism to say, "Stop the paper version in the mail; I'll read it online." You see, there's no easy way to know when residents have moved, so that a stopped subscription can be resumed to greet the new arrivals. ❁

DAVE STREATER IN CONCERT

Dave Streater, Master of Music Composition, Master of Science, and a confirmed bachelor of Piano Performance, is coming to Danby's Town Hall on Saturday, February 22, 2pm.

Dave is best known locally as an active local jazz and classical performer and composer. He'll also bring his sideline as a tutor in calculus and other mathematica to Danby, should anyone be looking for some sound advice. Numbers aside, Dave is a classical and jazz virtuoso who knows rock and roll and blues like the back of his hand.

He plays with Lucky Ol' Sun and appears weekly at the Ithaca Jazz and Blues Jam. There's more to be told, but for that, you'll have to come to hear him!

This concert is supported by funding from the Town of Danby and the COMMUNITY ARTS PARTNERSHIP of Tompkins County. As always, the performance is free and is open to the public. And refreshments will be served. ❁

HEATING UP: SAFETY TIPS

Submitted by Steve Cortright, Code Officer

HELLO DANBY! I WOULD LIKE TO INTRODUCE myself, my name is Steve Cortright and I am the newly hired Code Enforcement Officer for the Town of Danby. I grew up up in West Danby and still live there today. I bring to the job of Code Officer 30 years of construction experience, 15 years experience as a volunteer firefighter in the West Danby Fire Department and 5 years of code enforcement experience with other municipalities.

As we are coming into the heart of the winter heating season, I'd like to talk a little about home heating. Many home fires are caused by faulty heating appliances or improperly installed hearing appliances and vents/chimneys. The New York State Uniform Building and Fire Safety Code as well as the Code of the Town of Danby require building permits for the permanent installation of heating and cooling appliances and their vents or chimneys. This includes solid fuel burning appliances as well as gas- and oil-fired heating appliances.

Residents within the West Danby Water District: if you have a fire hydrant located on your property, please remove the snow (if we ever get any, that is) from three feet around it.

A large part of my job is educating the public on the Building and Fire Protection Code. Please contact me, 607.277.0799 or [code@townofdanbyny.org] if you ever have any code-related questions. My office hours are Monday thru Friday, 8am-4:30pm. ❧

INTRO TO NEW TOWN PLANNER

Submitted by Jason Haremza, Town Planner

HELLO DANBY AND HAPPY 209TH BIRTHDAY! During the past three months, I've been learning as much as I can about Danby and have discovered, as many of you already know, that the Town of Danby was incorporated by an Act of the New York State Legislature on February 22, 1811.

So with birthday greetings, let me say how much I appreciate the warm welcome that Danby has given me as the new Town Planner. I've met many Town residents already and I look forward to meeting many more as the season turns towards spring and planning activities get underway.

I wanted to share a bit about me so you could get to know your Town Planner. I grew up on 16 acres in a hilly rural town not unlike Danby: the Town of Sardinia, about 45 minutes south of Buffalo. School and life took me to SUNY Geneseo and Rochester, then Toronto, then Buffalo, then back to Rochester. From 2003 to 2007, I was a planner with Genesee/Finger Lakes Regional Planning Council and assisted many rural communities throughout the Finger Lakes. For the past 12 years, I have been a planner and urban designer for the City of Rochester.

Danby has given me the opportunity to return to my rural roots and I look forward to helping the Town over the coming months and years.

Please don't hesitate to contact me, [planner@townofdanbyny.org] or 607.277.2400. I'm always happy to talk about planning and zoning, especially if you are considering a new building project such as a garage, shed, barn, home addition, or new business venture. We can chat about the zoning regulations before you are too far along and make sure your project is as successful as possible! ❧

Safety Tips to help you have a safe heating season...

- keep combustibles a minimum distance of three feet away from ignition sources
- have your heating system serviced annually by a certified service technician
- keep your vent terminations clear of snow and ice to prevent dangerous levels of carbon monoxide buildup in your home
- for woodburning stove/fireplaces keep your your chimney clean to prevent chimney fires and dangerous carbon monoxide buildup
- for coal burning stoves keep the vent pipe clear of coal ash that will settle in the horizontal sections of the pipe and cause the backup of dangerous carbon monoxide
- when removing ashes from a wood or coal appliance use a sturdy, non-combustible container to carry the ashes out of your house and dispose of them a safe distance from any structures (a plastic or paper/ cardboard container is not advisable)
- if using electric space heaters always plug them directly into a wall outlet—never use extension cords-and unplug them when not in use
- if using kerosene or propane space heaters always refuel them outside, away from your home and after they have cooled off
- at the beginning of the heating season check your smoke and carbon monoxide detectors to make sure they are working. These are very important warning devices within your home.

—Steve Cortright

WEST DANBY WATER DISTRICT UPDATE

Submitted by Tod Sukontarak

STARTING THIS YEAR, there will be significant and positive changes to the District's Commissioner lineup.

We now have a Board of Commissioners none of which is also an operator. The importance of this is that the operations of the District are now separate from its oversight.

The commissioners are Bruce Richards, Skip Fairchild, Marrell Cortright, Anna Finley and Carl Seamon. The operators are Scott Wendt and Tod Sukontarak. Along with an engaged and informed Town Board I look forward to assisting the Commissioners in any way I can in the interest of the Water District.

The next District meeting will be February 5, 5pm, in the West Danby Fire Station conference room. ❀

HOUSING REPAIR PUBLIC HEARING

Submitted by Jason Haremza, Town Planner

BACK IN THE SUMMER OF 2019, the Town of Danby received a NYS Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) award to pay for a comprehensive town-wide survey of housing conditions. The Town used this funding to hire C.T.Male Associates to conduct a town-wide survey and compile the results to help guide future policy decisions about housing needs. Come learn about the results during a Public Hearing on February 24, 7pm, in Danby's Town Hall, 1830 Danby Road (NYS Rt.96B).

You may recall seeing a one-page survey questionnaire in the December issue of the Danby News. This Housing Repair Survey of Interest is available to all homeowners and tenants to identify repair needs that could support Town efforts to obtain future grant funding assistance for eligible residents.

Although the results of the housing analysis will be discussed during the Public Hearing on February 24, the Town will continue to collect Surveys of Interest from residents on an ongoing basis to develop a waiting list for possible housing grant applications. The Survey of Interest is available at [danbyny.org/HomeRepairSurvey] or through me, [planner@townofdanbyny.org] or 607.277.2400. All information collected will be kept confidential and used solely to support the Town's efforts to seek housing grant funds to help qualified residents with needed repairs. Please note that submitting a Survey of Interest does not guarantee that the Town will be able to obtain funding for a housing repair program in the future.

The Public Hearing is open and accessible to all residents and any other interested members of the community. ❀

SUPERVISOR'S UPDATE

Submitted by Joel Gagnon, Town of Danby Supervisor

OUR TOWN OFFICES this year are populated with an almost entirely new staff. While that kind of turnover is not something we would ordinarily want, the result is a fine cast of dedicated public servants. Jason Haremza is our new full-time planner and brings with him over ten years experience with the City of Rochester. He has the skills to help us deal with just about all the planning issues we want to tackle, and that's saying a lot. Steve Cortright, our new code office guy, is a Danby resident and has experience as Code Enforcement Officer in Dryden and Spencer as well as many years of construction experience before that. Alex Pfeifer, our new Town Clerk, is proving to be a quick study, both thorough and conscientious. Her new Deputy Town Clerk, Jenny Caldwell, is a Danby native and both competent and delightfully engaging. I am pleased to be associated with them and fully expect that you will be too.

Our new staff are scrambling to pick up the reins left to them by their predecessors. Expect to hear from them regularly in these pages once they settle in. I wish we had better coverage of what your local government is up to by the press, but that seems to have been lost in recent years. We'll do our best to keep you informed, but self-criticism is not something very many of us are good at. To really know what is going on, get involved!

In January, the Town Board approved creation of a Planning Group to coordinate the planning effort and bring proposals to the Town Board. I was appointed chair. The core membership will consist of interested members of the Town, Planning, and Zoning Appeals boards, as well as the Conservation Advisory Council. Anyone else with an interest is encouraged to join as well. Regular attendance will be rewarded by voting status (you need only attend at least one of the previous two meetings to acquire and retain a vote). That said, we will try to achieve consensus on our recommendations to the Town Board rather than rely on majority vote. The first meeting will be in February. To sign up, contact me (see below). We'll do a Doodle Poll to find the best meeting time, likely to be a Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday evening in the third or fourth week of the month.

What will the Planning Group do? First up will be identifying what interim changes to make to our zoning and subdivision ordinances to reduce their inadequacies while we undertake the major redrafting of these two key laws. We will then step back and ask the overarching questions: What does the community want, where does the community want it, and how can the community enable and facilitate that? This also includes: what do we not want, where don't we want it, and what do we propose to do to prevent and discourage it? If we can come to agreement on these key questions, we can chart a course to a better Danby.

Feel free to contact me, 607.227.4440, or [\[supervisor@townofdanbyny.org\]](mailto:supervisor@townofdanbyny.org). ☘

2020 CHRISTMAS BIRD COUNT

Submitted by Wesley Blauvelt

THE 2020 ITHACA AREA CHRISTMAS BIRD COUNT, sponsored by the Cayuga Bird Club was conducted on January 1, 2020. About a dozen Danby area residents participated in the count, which covered much of the Town of Danby.

Thirty-six species were found in Danby during the count, with highlights including a Bald Eagle, Winter Wren and Golden-crowned Kinglets.

The Ithaca area count resulted in 89 species identified and over 23,000 individual birds counted. Among the highlights were five Merlin, a small falcon whose range has been extending south from its Canadian breeding grounds. High counts were also observed for Turkey Vultures, Song Sparrows, and Great Black-backed Gulls.

Several species had low counts including Mallards, American Coots, Canada Geese, American Robins, Cedar Waxwings, and American Crows. The decline in American Crows is noteworthy and may be directly related to the spread of West Nile virus among the population.

The count day ended with a potluck dinner and compilation of data collected during the day at the Cornell Laboratory of Ornithology. Thanks to all of the Danby count participants. I hope you will be able to join us again next year for the 59th annual Ithaca area Christmas Bird Count. ❀

PARK PLAYGROUND PROGRESS

Submitted by Mish Lenhart, Danby Community Park Association

THE NATURAL PLAYGROUND in Dotson Park really came to fruition in 2019! Phase one of the playground, including the boulder scramble, slide, benches, and boardwalk, was completed thanks to a small group of dedicated volunteers, donors, and the Towns and Villages Parks and Trails Grant.

The Danby Community Park Association (DCPA) is ready to start phase two of the natural playground, and we want you to be involved! Phase two includes building low tree forts, a small amphitheater, a stage area for kids to perform, and more. The DCPA is soliciting local builders to help when the project work begins in summer 2020, and asking residents of Danby to contribute their ideas during our spring 2020 planning time.

Please join the DCPA for Coffee and Conversation on Saturday, March 21, 10am in Danby's Town Hall. The park board will provide coffee and donuts, and all Danby residents are invited to come and brainstorm ideas for the future of the natural playground. You might just listen and learn, share a creative idea for the plan, or you might even decide to join the Natural Playground Advisory Committee, if you are really passionate about this project!

We hope to see you on March 21 to kick off the park's playground planning season! You can contact the DCPA at [dotsonpark@gmail.com] if you would like more information. ❀

LOOKING FOR (PLANT) LIFE?

Submitted by Pat Curran

GREETINGS, FELLOW GARDENERS and nature lovers! Looking for some color, some plant life?

Tompkins Cornell Cooperative Extension has a long tradition of winter slide shows to chase away the gray... and there are three scheduled for this winter.

The first show, on primroses by a local garden author, is on Sunday January 26. The second, on February 9, is on English garden travels, and the third, on February 23, is on winter landscape features—colorful ones, that is!

All shows are on Sundays at 2pm, free and open to the public (although donations to the horticulture program are always welcome). Some refreshments are donated by the Tompkins County Master Gardeners. Location is in Tompkins CCE, 615 Willow Avenue in downtown Ithaca. ❁

DANBY COMMUNITY LIBRARY

Submitted by Cindy Parlett

THE ANNUAL UPDATING of our patron registration cards has begun. We have decided to update our cards after only three years, rather than five, since so much can change during a 5-year period. You may be contacted by Email, phone, or snail mail. If you would prefer not to renew your registration we can delete your information from our database.

A new selection of Adult Fiction books from TCPL were delivered last month and Picture Books will be arriving soon.

A warm welcome to our newest volunteer, David McDermitt. Anyone interested in volunteering is always welcome. We meet as a group the first Saturday of each month, 9am, in Danby's Town Hall. ❁

DANBY SENIORS UPDATE

Submitted by Margie VanDeMark

THE DANBY SENIORS WILL MEET on Thursday, February 6, Noon, for a dish to share luncheon.

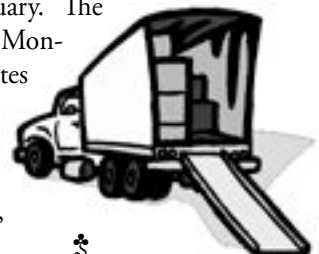

We thank our January hosts: Pat & Leon Phelps, Judy & Bill Cuyle, Paul Moore, and Helen Street. Dan Klein spoke to us about County-owned forest lands and a lively discussion ensued.

We'd like to try and streamline setup and cleanup for our meetings so we're asking everyone to please bring a serving spoon/spatula for your dish to share. This will eliminate dishwashing after the meeting. ❁

MOBILE FOOD PANTRY

Submitted by Margie VanDeMark

REMINDER: There will be no mobile pantry truck here in Danby during February. The next distribution will be on Monday, March 23. Other 2020 dates are: April 27, none in May (holiday), June 22, July 27, August 24, September 28, October 25, November 23, and December 28. ❁

Community Council Youth Programs

Thank you so much to everyone who came on the Danby Family Field Trip to the Rockwell Museum and Museum of Glass in Corning. It was a huge success, with nearly 50 Danby residents in attendance. We had a great time mingling, viewing monumental American pieces at the Rockwell, and learning about the science and art behind glass-making. I hope to organize more family-oriented events this coming year, as they are a great way to bring together Danby parents and youth who would otherwise not be acquainted with one another.

This January & February, I am three offering afterschool programs: Traditional Woodcarving and Night Visions for 6th-8th graders and Cooking 101 for 4th-5th graders. Programs beginning after the February break are still in the works, but will likely include knitting and computer coding for middle schoolers, and a maple syrup production program for youth in grades 4 and 5.

Please visit [danbycc.org/YouthPrograms] or contact me, 585.236.6304 or [mas759@cornell.edu], for the most up-to-date program schedules. —Melis Schildkraut

Traditional Woodcarving - Grade 6-7-8

Tuesdays, January 14-February 11, 3:30-5:30pm
Boynton Middle School

Learn how to safely use hand tools to carve objects out of wood! We will practice basic whittling skills, carving into basswood blocks. By the end of the program, youth will create a spoon and a miniature canoe.

Cooking 101 - Grade 4-5

Wednesdays, January 15-February 12, 2:30-5pm
Danby Community Church

Confident cook? Never set foot in the kitchen before? Never fear! Join me in the Danby Community Church kitchen as we learn some cooking basics to increase your confidence in the kitchen. Recipes will be directed by youth, and each participant will receive a recipe booklet at the end of the program so that they can reproduce their creations at home.

Night Visions - Grade 6-7-8

Thursdays, January 16-February 13, 4:30-6:30pm
Danby Town Hall

Wintertime in upstate New York is dark, and it can be hard to get outside, stay warm, and stay happy! In this program we will explore the folklore of the winter solstice, take nighttime hikes, build campfires, and make winter crafts. Danby Community Council member, Bill Evans, will also make a guest appearance, using tracking technology to help us locate deer, flying squirrels, and owls in the night! Come prepared to go outside and trek into the woods. ❄️

MENTORS NEEDED

Submitted by Susie Kossack

MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE in a child's life! Join a team committed to change!

The Mentor-Student Program of Cornell Cooperative Extension 4-H seeks volunteer mentors to work one on one with middle school students who benefit from having a positive role model in their lives. This opportunity involves attending a 12-hour training, receiving ongoing support, and meeting with your student, 3:25-4:35pm twice a week.

This is a win/win experience for both student and mentor, as you learn and grow with each other. Training begins early February. Please contact me, at 607.275.6250 or [msskossack@yahoo.com]. ❄️
